

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

May 2018

When you contribute to the Friends
you make your mark on the future of our Library
by fostering changes that benefit our community.

Together we can reach New Heights for a Library that is already unique, committed and responsive to our community.
Every contribution will help us achieve our mission.

New Heights: 2018 is another special year because we continue to reach new heights in funding of our library...Funding provided by the Friends and The Center for Lifelong Learning (CLL) increased to $75,000 in 2018 as our investment in Library programs, materials and services for adults, teens and children. Our funding since 1995 has now reached $1,181,000. This has made a difference for our Library and the Community!
Your investment really counts!

New Heights: In 2018 thanks to your continuing support the Friends and CLL will cover over 90% of all Library programs, materials and services...$18,000 in Programs, $51,000 in Materials (Books $24,000, Media $19,000, Periodicals and Museum passes $8,000) and the balance of $6,000 for services / technology Your investment is being put to good use.

New Heights: What better example is there than the many and varied programs being offered by your library for adults, teens and children. There are new, informative, helpful and exciting programs for you and those of all ages in our community. Your investment has helped achieve record Library participation.

New Heights: Involvement in our Library is increasing! There are many good things happening. However, your financial support and investment is essential to help us meet the increasing and varied needs of the community. As you can appreciate, operating expenses continue to increase so our funding commitment becomes even more important. Your investment will make a difference!

Please support and invest in the Friends and your Library with a family contribution of $35, be a Booster at $50 or a Sponsor at $100. No matter what your contribution we are grateful. Just complete the enclosed form and send it in with your tax-deductible contribution.

Your investment can help us reach New Heights for our Library that has so much to offer you and the community. Please invest!

Sincerely,

Ron Leavesley
President
